AGUSTIN PUJOL NEW ETA PRESIDENT

Agustin Pujol, President of the Spanish Tennis Federation and Vice-President of the European Tennis Association since March 1999, became the new President of ETA.

He was elected for the next two years by the Annual General Meeting held in Barcelona on March 24-26, 2000. The delegates of 40 Member Nations representing 59 votes gave Agustin Pujol 32 votes while his opponent Pierre-Paul de Keghel (Belgium) got 27 votes.

Jean-Pierre Darteville (France) was nominated Vice-President in replacement of Agustin Pujol, and Michele Brunetti (Italy) was co-opted Member of the Committee of Management to take the vacant seat.

Welcome to the first issue of the

ETA NEWS

The launch of the ETA Internet Newsletter is a milestone in the history of the ETA. We hope you will enjoy it!!

AGUSTIN PUJOL THE NEW ELECTED ETA PRESIDENT

"I intend to transfer to my new role of ETA President all my experience of nearly 15 years as President of the Spanish Tennis Federation and the knowledge of International Tennis acquired during this time.

Agustin Pujol, ETA President

What is your opinion about the present structure and activities of the ETA?

As we all know, one of the main activities of the ETA is to control and coordinate the junior competitions i.e. European Championships, Team and Individual in all age categories as well as the ETA TOUR events.

Another important activity is the joint ITF/ETA Development Program. This is in order to help the less developed countries and to promote tennis in Europe.

The present structure of the ETA office in Basel is based on a small team and I am conscious that it has to be adapted in proportion to the growth and development of tennis in Europe.

What is your key vision for the future, where the ETA should be in 5-10 years?

I think that the main purpose of the ETA in the next 5-10 years is to consolidate tennis in all the countries and try to make them self-sufficient from the tennis point of view.

Another of our main objectives is to secure a professional competition that allows us to generate our own economical resources and to reinforce the sponsorship policy.

What is your action plan for the next two years?

For the next two years, my action plan is limited to two areas: in the administration area I will study the reform of the Constitution in order to adapt it to the actual needs. In the sportive area I would like to coordinate and to make profitable the investment applied to the development program so we won't lose any talented tennis player that could arise in any European country.

Of course, my task will consist in continuing the political management trying to get out the best profits of the more important countries in Europe in order to help the more disfavoured.

Do you think that your position as President of the Spanish Tennis Federation will be an asset for your activity as ETA President?

I intend to transfer to my new role of ETA President all my experience of nearly 15 years as President of the Spanish Tennis Federation and the knowledge of international tennis acquired during this time.

I also want with this to encourage my colleagues, Presidents of National Associations, to join the Committee of Management or the different working Committees to the benefit of the ETA.

How do you see tennis as a sport generally, and what kind of changes might we face in the future?

I see tennis like a sport, which is becoming more and more popular and with a very huge number of tennis players in the entire world in spite of all the new alternatives that diversify the practice of sports.

The changes we might make in the future, should mainly affect professional tennis and aim to balance all the interests surrounding the competitions, since improving tennis as an spectacle to try to control the length of matches in benefit of the television broadcast and the sponsorships.

Regarding amateur tennis, I think the tennis clubs should adapt their equipments to improve the quality of their services and to enlarge the offer of activities always maintaining tennis as main competence.

ASETRA GROUP; LEADING SWISS IT SOLUTION COMPANY SIGNED AN AGREEMENT WITH ETA

The European Tennis Association managed to settle a sponsorship agreement regarding the creation of the brand new ETA Website with the Asetra Group, one of the leading IT Solutions Company in Switzerland.

This agreement included the designing and programming of www.etatennis.com and reduced the total costs for ETA by approx. 35 %.

Asetra Group was the first main sponsor of former Top 10 player Patty Schnyder. They are also involved in other Sport events on highest European level, such as the International Swiss Open in Badminton.

"We are proud of this part-

The President and Managing Director of Asetra Group, Thomas G. Varga and ETA Director of Marketing & Events Olli Mäenpää after the successful conclusion of the project.

nership with the European Tennis Association as tennis has always been important to us" says Thomas G. Varga, Managing Director of Asetra Group. "Our mission statement is that human and technology should live in harmony and that such philosophy suits also for Sports".

The results of this cooperation can be experienced daily by users all over Europe. The first feedback from the field has been really encouraging.

WWW.ETATENNIS.COM

In the world of communication a lot has been changing in the past years. More than 160 Million humans are connected to the Internet and another uncountable amount of people have access to the Internet through Universities, Internet Coffees, Friends etc..

Also in the tennis community more and more people get access to the net of the nets. The European Tennis Association had to follow the new trends. One remarkable change was the launch of an own ETA homepage.

Today 46 ETA Member Nations out of 48 have access to the Internet. Approximately 50% of those have also an own homepage.

The goal of the ETA Website is to help the Member Nations functionally but also financially as most of the information needed can be found on the Internet without investing time and money for international calls and faxes.

A NEW LOGO FOR THE EUROPEAN TENNIS ASSOCIATION

On 1st January 2000 the ETA launched a new logo, which was presented during the Annual General Meeting in Barcelona to all the Member Nations.

This new logo is one of the key assets among the other new ETA communication tools like ETA Homepage, ETA publications etc.

We hope that this new ETA "face" will help us to promote our sport and organization even better in the future.

ETA NEWS - THE INTERNET NEWSLETTER

With the launch of our Website a new chapter of the ETA communication was opened. The ETA NEWS shall replace the ETA FLASH, which was published 3 to 4 times a year during the last decade. "THE FLASH was not very cost efficient and also the number of issues per year did not allow to have any up to date content" says Olli Mäenpää, Director of Marketing & Events. For the time being the readers without Internet access will receive the ETA NEWS as before by post.

EUROPEAN VETERANS INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 24th edition of the European Indoor Championships was played in Seefeld (Austria) on January 8-22, 2000.

All age categories were represented at this huge tournament taking place over two weeks, which means a gathering of more than 500 players. At the first edition in 1977 there were a total of 114 participants.

RACE TO PRATO - ETA JUNIORS MASTERS

The ETA Junior Masters was started in 1996 to reward the players who compete in the ETA Junior Circuit. It is supposed to be the end of the season highlight for the eight best-ranked boys and girls of the 14 and 16 & under age categories. The competition came to life thanks to the initiative of the Italian Tennis Federation and the Tennis Club Prato, where it was played since its creation. This year's edition will be played in Prato again from the 6th - 8th October and the ETA TOUR Ranking of 20th September will decide about the eligible players for the Masters.

2000 ETA COACHES SYMPOSIUM

The 25th European Coaches Symposium will be held in Otocec Slovenia from 1-4 October 2000.

The European Coaches Symposium on this occasion will be organised by the ETA in conjunction with the Slovene Tennis Association. It is the first time that this high level technical conference is held in Slovenia.

This year the four days long European tennis conference will deal with the development of high performance players. It will also update on the latest research in the coaching field and feature three distinctive parts (general/specific/scientific) with lectures and on-court presentations. On different topics of general interest in tennis, on various areas of tennis sport science and on specific topics presented by top international experts mainly from Europe.

Detailed information together with a tentative programme of the conference will be air-mailed to all ETA member nations, early in May. Applications to attend the workshop must come to the ETA Headquarters in Basel via National Associations. Closing date for entries is Monday 26 June 2000. Therefore, any coaches wishing to apply to attend the Symposium should contact their National Association immediately.

Even this year the jointly funded ITF/ETA Development Programme will provide accommodation and travelling grants to attend the conference for delegates of selected European member nations.

For further information please contact Luca Santilli (lucas@etatennis.com) ITF/ETA Development Officer.

ITF/ETA DEVELOPMENT CHAMPIONSHIPS 2000

The ITF/ETA Development Championships will be taking place in Skopje, FYROMacedonia and Batumi, Georgia on 23 April – 4 May 2000, hosted by the Tennis Associations of Macedonia (14U) and Georgia (16U). More than 110 players from 15 European nations will be taking part in the 14&16 Under Championships. Those players who perform well will have the opportunity to be invited to be a member of an ITF Team 14/U and receive a Special Travel Grant (16/U) of 2000 US$ to play more junior tournament. (Luca Santilli)

ITF/ETA SMALL STATES CHAMPIONSHIPS

The ITF/ETA Small States Championships will take place for the first time in Malta from 29 May to 6 May 2000 with 8 small States invited.

EUROPE/AFRICA INVACARE WORLD TEAM CUP/ PARALYMPIC QUALIFICATION

It is always nice when you are expecting hamburger and you get served a fillet. Well, the 13 countries participating in the Europe/Africa Invacare World Team Cup/Paralympic Qualification, were not only served the finest Argentine Chorrizo, but it was also accompanied with a generous side order of Croatian hospitality.

"The tournament was brilliant. The ambience was great, the food was excellent and the transportation very good. The people were really friendly...I will certainly be telling all of my friends to visit this country and come to the tournaments here. And if not for the tennis, I will come back for the beautiful women that I have met here," said discriminating tour regular Carlo Tresch (SUI) after the tournament.

The largest and most competitive qualification to date was held the week of March 14-20 at the Tennis Club Alplan in Zagreb, Croatia. Led by the 32nd ranked player in the world, Gert Vos, and Roland de Meersman, the second seeded Belgium team played solidly through high-pressure situations to earn the top spot and a guaranteed invitation to the premier team events in wheelchair tennis.

Their first tough test was against the home team Croatia. Playing in front of passionate Croatian supporters, de Meersman clawed back from a set down and 31 down in the third set to defeat Drazen Miksic (CRO). Vos then quickly sealed the win and their place in the semifinals with an easy 61 63 victory win over Ante Stimac (CRO).

Meanwhile, the top seeded Swiss team was experiencing heavy resistance from the other teams in pool one, following behind 01 in their opener against the Slovenian team. Zdravko Erzen's (SLO) three-set win over Carlo Tresch (SUI) put the top seeds on their heels early, but veterans Martin Erni and Thomas Suiter came back for the Swiss in the remaining matches to end Slovenia major upset hopes.

The top seeds in both pools three and four, Hungary and Spain, went undefeated in their round robin ties meaning the top four seeds advanced to the semifinals. The Hungary-Belgium tie featured the top two ranked tour players, Vos and Laszlo Farkas (HUN). Csaba Prohaska showed top form in the opener to give the Hungarians the early advantage with a three-set win over de Meersman.

In the featured match Farkas got the early start with a 63 first set win, and the Hungarian hopes looked good. As the pressure mounted, Vos raised his game, and gained confidence with every point taking the next two sets 63 63. "He just kept trying things until he found a formula that worked," said Belgium coach Ann Laservyn.

Switzerland seemed to regain top class form in the semifinal against Spain and as Suiter and Erni opened with two emphatic singles wins to set up a 1st seed vs. 2nd seed final on Sunday.

With their places in both the Paralympics and the Invacare World Team Cup secured, Sunday's final between the top two seeds was more of a friendly than anything else. Belgium's de Meersman, took the hard fought opening match over Suiter, as Vos sealed first place for his country with a three set win over Erni.

Congratulations to all the organisers, staff, ball persons, hostesses, and officials who really made this week a truly memorable experience for the players and all those who came to watch and enjoy our sport's finest talent. (Nancy Fass)
